THE South-Carolina GAZETTE.

June 25th, 1753. [NUMB. 993.]

CHARLES-TOWN, June 25.

THE Commander in Chief of North-Carolina has prohibited the Exportation of Indian Corn, and all other Grain, from that Province, 'till the 12th of November next; Power to do ſo being given him by an Act, intitled, an Act to prohibit the Exportation of Grain in Time of Scarcity, whereby it is enacted, "That whenever "the Price of Corn exceeds 3 ſh. Proclamation Mo- "ney per Buſhel in any Port of that Province, the "Governor or Commander in Chief, with the Con- "ſent of at leaſt 3 of his Council, may, by Procla- "mation, prohibit the Exportation of all Grain."

In the laſt Veſſels from London, came two Mandamus's appointing the Hon. William Wragg and Geo. Saxby Eſqrs. Members of His Majeſty's Council: And we hear, Mr. Saxby has already taken his Seat.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman at Auguſta in Georgia, dated the 17th Inſtant.

"THIS Morning the Creek's [who lately came up from Charles-Town] had an Account of 4 Northern Indians being ſeen ſkulking about the Sand Bar laſt Night; a- bout 4 Clock, to Day, a Party of them went out ſcout- ing and by 3, Malatſhi and his People came to our Houſe with the Death Whoop: They brought in one Fellow alive which they had beaten very much, and the Scalp with Part of the Skull of one they kill'd [we have been told, that to take part of the Skull (with the Scalp) is the greateſt Indignity that can be offered to Indians, and that they ſeldom forgive it]. They came up with them near Mr. Oak's about 8 Mile from Fort Auguſta. The one they kill'd is judged to be a Nottowega, by his Hair, Hatchet, and two ſmall wooden Images that were tied round his Neck; the other calls Cherokee, is believed to be of that Nation, and was down here about a Month ſince with the Chickaſaw's. From this they carried him to Mr. Rae's, there beat him again, and ſtuck their Knives into his Body, and at laſt with a Hatchet chopt off his Head."

We cannot yet inform our Readers, what is intended to be done with the Schawanee Indians lately taken.

'Tis ſaid, that eight Garde de Côte's and two Frigates of 30 Guns, from Martinique, are continually cruizing about that Iſland, and take every Veſſel they can come up with.
